

The Landmarks Conservancy's 13th Annual Sacred Sites Open House celebrating New York's diverse historic houses of worship. This year's theme, Congregations and Communities: 50 Years of Sacred Sites, seeks to highlight how sacred sites create community connections through the services they offer, social ties they create, and the spaces they provide for people from all walks of life.

The Sacred Sites Open House has attracted thousands of visitors over the last decade, all eager to learn about the art, architecture, history, and programming at New York's diverse houses of worship. Be a "tourist in your own town" and discover the incredible art, architecture, and history found in sacred spaces right in your own backyard!

The First Congregational Church in Malone will be participating and will be open May 20, Saturday, from 11 to 5 and May 21, Sunday, from noon to 4 pm and it's free. This church participated in the Underground Railroad during the nineteenth century.
